

Q. Taking inspiration from this template/background write a short story (120-150 words).

Looking into the water

Once upon a time there lived a young girl named Shraddha. She returned home after completing her graduation from New York. She had a dream to become a doctor so that she can help people. But her dream was not fulfilled. She tried her best to get in a job in nearby hospital but didn't. She lost her hope and willpower. Her dream remained a dream for her.

She always used to sit near a lake which flows from their backyard of the house. The scene of the beautiful trees, charming lake and many colorful fish. The fish were moving ahead in the flow of water but water pushes them back. But the fishes never lose their willpower and tied. This motivated her to go ahead.

A woman with dark hair, wearing a purple long-sleeved top and a white skirt, is sitting on a black chair. She is looking towards a large, dark tree in the background. The scene is set in a park-like area with a paved path and a body of water in the distance. The background is a soft, painterly landscape with a large tree and a body of water. The sky is a mix of light blue and yellow, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

She from then worked harder.

One day she was sitting and thinking what to do next, suddenly she got a phone from the nearby health care to have a job. Her hard work made her to achieve her desired dream which came true.

Aditya Digvijay Ray

Moral of the story:- We should never lose confidence and our willpower in our life. We should work harder and harder till the success come and tell us to take it into our hand.