

1. Based on the following outlines, develop a short story in 150-200 words. 10

Vaibhav goes for camping—gets up early one morning—decides to go for a walk in the jungle—meets a group of aliens—befriends them—aliens invite him to visit planet—accompanies them—stays for two days—has wonderful time—returns two inches tall—parents and friends surprised—narrates experience.

Ans. Once upon a time there lived a boy named Vaibhav. He had gone for camping. He got up early in morning. He did all his exercises and made his breakfast. After taking his breakfast he decides to go for a walk in the jungle. While he was returning from his walk, he saw a light sparkling from the bushes. He went near them and meets with a group of aliens. They were quite tall and different from human being. They can understand his language and befriends them. After a couple of days, he again went to meet them. They then invited him to visit their planet. He also accompanied them. The planet was very beautiful from earth. It seemed heaven to him. He stayed for two days. He explored all the places on the their planet. The chocolate rivers, the trees having sweets. He had a wonderful time. The most amazing thing to him was, on that planet there was sugar. When he returns, he had grown two inches tall. The parent and friends were happy as well as surprised to see him grown two inches tall. He narrates his experience.

2. Write a story with the help of the following hints in 150-200 words.

10

Rahim, a dedicated clerk—made enemies within his department for being very honest—adverse reports—suspended on a false charge—fought his case—met the minister—got his job back.

Ans. Once upon a time, there lived a dedicated clerk named Rahim. He was very honest and loyal. He was one of the most liked clerk in his office. He was also very liked by chairman and founder of the office. Other clerk and facilities were very jealous of his work. His salary was also increased day by day. This was seen by other staff members. They all made a plan to suspend him. After he knew about this, made enemies within his department for being very honest. But his friendliness made him in trouble. He was suspended on a false charge. He was amazed and surprised for being suspended suddenly without any warning. When he came to know that the other facilities had made a false charge on him for which he was suspended. He collected all the proofs against the staff and fought his case in court. But unsuccessful. Then met with the minister and showed all the proofs that he had collected. Then, for being honest and truth, he got his job back.