

The Sound Of Music

1. (a) Bismillah was fascinated watching his uncle practise the Shehnai at his maternal uncle's house in Benaras.
  - (b) Ali Bux would take Bismillah to the Vishnu temple of Benares!
  - (c) The most captivating moment for Bismillah was when Ali Bux would play the Shehnai for hours on end.
  - (d) The antonym of 'Paternal' is Maternal.
2. (a) Emperor Akzhang Jel ban thee playing of Pungi because it had a sharp and unpleasant sound.
  - (b) A barber thought to improve pungi. He choose a pipe with a natural hollow stem. He made seven holes in its body. He played on it closing and opening some of these holes. It produced a sweet sound. He played it before the royal ty. It needed a name. So it was named after the player. He was a 'nai' (barber).

(c) Bismillah got a laddu as a reward in the Bihariji temple because he would sing the Bhojpuri chaita.
