

Dear Friends,

Hope you are doing fine. I am writing this letter to let you know about the book which I have bought recently, and it is very interesting.

As you know that how much I love to read novels and when I start a book I cannot put it down until I finish it. Last week one of my classmate suggest me a book called The Count of Monte Cristo. It is a adventure French novel. The story concerned with themes of hope, justice, revenge, forgiveness and it focuses on imprisonment.

Well I remember the last time when we talked, you said want some ~~briefing~~ research on history of French as it was were one of your project. I think this book will help you to complete your project.

I can send ^{you} the soft copy of the copy through email, otherwise you can buy it online.

Convey my reward to uncle and aunt.
Looking forward to see you soon.

Yours lovely,
Ankita
