

The Nationalist Movement (1885 - 1919)

1. Nationalism is a feeling of pride in one's country. It also refers to the desire for freedom, felt by people under foreign domination, as in the case of pre-independent India.
2. In 1885, Allan Octavian Hume, a retired British civil servant, founded the Indian National Congress (INC).