

Hw

Greedy Guard Legend A Lesson

Gopal and Hari were walking down a dusty road. They were carrying an enormous brinjal under their shoulder. Suddenly, they were stopped by a king's guard in the middle of nowhere.

king's Guard: Hey, What's your name? and Where are you going with this enormous brinjal.

Gopal and Hari got scared.

Gopal: Sir, My name is Gopal and he is Hari.

This brinjal we have bought from our farm.

king's Guard was greedy. He thought if he can take this brinjal and offer it to king, the king will be pleased and reward him. So he asked Gopal and Hari to hand over the brinjal to him. He said "This brinjal is harvested in our king's kingdom. So it belongs to our king if you won't give it to me, I will put both of you behind the bars in charge of disrespecting the king and talking away king's property without his knowledge. Both Gopal and Hari got scared. But Gopal was clever and an idea struck to his mind.

Gopal: to king's guard, Sir, If you take this brinjal and offer it to king, he will enquire about it and at the end we will be rewarded insted of you. Take us to the king and we will share half the reward with you. The ~~king~~ ~~was~~ guard get convinced and took them to the king. The king was pleased to offer them reward of their choice. Gopal ~~and~~ asked for 50 lashes in reward. the king got supurised and asked for the reason behind such strange request. Gopal explained the whole situation to the king. king after knowing about the incident, punished the greedy guard ~~and~~ and rewarded Gopal and Hari

Moral: Wrong doings gets punised sonner or later