Dear Diary,

Today my mother said me to go to the market and bring fruits and vegetables after that when I reached market and I am buying vegetables suddenly a beggar came and repeatedly saying me to give him some money or food and I am telling him that I don't have anything for you and please please go away from me but he is not going and saying repeatedly so I got angry. I and I have scolded him after that also he is not going so I have pushed him and his ~~head~~ ~~hit~~ ~~with~~ head hit with a iron ~~rod~~ road and it start bleeding from his head that is how I encountered a beggar, and now I am feeling so bad for him.
