Q1- What does the constitution say with regard to equality? Why do you think it is important for all people to be equal?

Ans- Our Constitution provides that the state should not discriminate against any citizen on the basis of religion, race, caste, sex or region. It is important for every citizen because only if they are treated equally, our society would develop. It is our right to be treated equally, given due respect and equal opportunities. If these things are not present, we and our life would be like a hell. Hence, we need equality so that we may step forward without any consequences.

Q2- Some people make prejudiced comments in your presence. We are often not in a position to do anything about this because it is difficult to say something right then and there. Divide the class into each group and each group discuss what they could do in one of the following situations.

1- A friend begins to tease a classmate because he is poor.

- 2- You are watching TV with your family and one of them makes a prejudicial comment about a particular religious community.
- 3- Children in your class refuse to share their food with a particular person because they think that he/she is a dirty person.
- 4- Someone tells you a joke that makes fun of a community because of their accent.
- 5- Some bodies make remarks about girls not being able to play games as well as them.

Discuss in class what the different groups have suggested for the above ~~situations~~ situations; and also talk about the problems that can come up when raising the issue.

- Ans - 1- The classmate needs to be told not to tease anyone.
- 2- You would stop him or her at the first time.
 - 3- They would be asked to see her qualities of head and heart and not of her dirtiness.
 - 4- Advise them.

5. They would ~~not~~ be asked not to do so.
