Dear Lagna,

I hope you will be fine there and enjoying, We all are fine here and missing you since you have left the home for studies. All are waiting for your arrival.

So, I have received your gift that was so lovely, you didn't forget my likes and dislikes yet. You had given me a marvellous cricket sports kit, for this I am waiting many months and it is also very branded. And also all my friends were admired.

For this, you have just made me the happiest person in the world. Thank you so much.

Yours lovingly
Yash
