

I Wish

Ch-5

Poet's wish

The flower's wish was to imagine the fun of butterflies. It also wanted to fly like them and enjoy the freedom.

The lamp's wish was also same but different way. It wanted to become a firefly and flew away.

The pond was very sad. It wanted to be a mist and floated away.

The poet wished different. He wanted that if he were a horse it will gallop freely.

If he were a fish, he would swim in the sea independently.

If he were a bird, he would fly freely.

And he also asks that will my wish come true?
