

Cactus

1 Why do green leaves need to produce food?

Ans The green leaves need to produce food for the plants to grow.

2 From where do leaves get energy for preparing food?

Ans From the sunlight leaves get energy for preparing food.

3 In what form is extra food stored in plants?

Ans Extra food is stored in the form of starch in the plants.

4. Name the part of a cactus plant that prepares food for the plant.

Ans. The name of the part of a cactus that prepares food for the plant is their stems.

5. Leaves of cotton appear dark red. Do these leaves have chlorophyll?

Ans. Yes, they have chlorophyll, but they appear dark red.