

Q1. Wa What does the Constitution say with regard to equality?

Ans → With regard to equality the Constitution says that all Indians are equal before the law and everyone has equal rights and opportunities. People are free to choose any kind of work they wish to do.

Q2. Why do you think it is important for all people to be equal?

Ans → It is important for all people to be equal so that everyone has equal opportunities to grow in life regardless of their religion, language, caste and community. It is important for the development of a society and the whole country.

3) a. A friend begins to tease a classmate because he is poor.

try
Ans I will, persuade that teasing is not good as we all are equal.

b) You are watching TV with your family and one of them makes a prejudicial comment about a particular religious community.

Ans I will strongly but politely oppose as all religious communities are equal.

c) Children in your class refuse to share their food with a particular person because they think that she is dirty.

Ans I will make them understand that sharing is caring. We all are friends and we should share our food with each other.

d) Someone tells you a joke that makes fun of a community because of their accent.

Ans I will convince that making fun of a community because of their accent is not good as every language is unique on its own.

e) Some boys make remarks about girls not being able to play games as well as them.

Ans I will explain them that boys and girls are equal and girls can do everything that boys can do.