Dear Diary,

It was one of a sorrow experience for me.

Today morning at about 9:00 Am I was going to the market with my father for purchasing few notebooks. There I saw a beggar at the entrance of the market. He was a disabled person with long beard, torn clothes and very lean and thin body as he doesn't get ^{enough} food to eat. So he that's why he was begging for money to eat some food. There were many people in the market who gave ^{him} some money and food to the poor beggar. On seeing the conditions of the beggar my heart filled with sympathy, then I asked my father a ten rupees note and gave the beggar. I saw a little happiness on his face and he blessed me. On enquiring I came to know that due to flood in his village, all the family members were washed away but somehow he was rescued. As he is a disabled person he couldn't do anything except begging. I felt pity on him after listening the tragic incident happened in his life. I pray God to give him strength to face the life to survive.
