

① Name the post fertilisation events.

ans → The post fertilisation events are endosperm and embryo development, maturation of the ovules to form seeds and maturation of the ovary to form fruit.

② Write any two functions of ~~placenta~~ placenta.

ans → Placenta helps in connecting the developing fetus to the uterine wall →

→ It enables functions of nutrient absorption, waste elimination, thermo regulation and gas exchange through mother's blood supply.