

21.12
1. Underline the action word in each sentence. Circle the word that helps the action word. One is done for you.

- (a) The bird is chirping sweetly.
(b) Rohan is playing with Anand.
(c) The children are making paperboats.
(d) I am drawing a tree.

2. Fill in the blanks by choosing the correct option from the brackets.

- (a) He is (is, are) a good boy.
(b) We are (am, are) going to the park.
(c) I am (is, am) very happy today.
(d) They are (are, am) reading stories.

Writing Junction

Use is, am and are to complete the paragraph.

The sun is rising in the sky. We are going for a morning walk. The birds are singing.
I am singing
with them. The children are playing in the garden. They are playing hide and seek. The milkman is riding a bicycle.

