

2. The smell of a perfume spreads very quickly from one corner from one corner of the room to the other. why?

A- The smell of a perfume spreads very quickly from one corner from one corner of the room because the molecules in gases are very loosely packed and gases can flow easily.