

Should we waste water? why or why not

A. water is essential to agriculture, using less water can greatly affect the availability of this essential commodity for growing good ~~the~~ crops. About 97 percent of the earth's water is salt water which is not suitable for drinking. Minimizing water wastage helps cut down costs on water and energy bills.