

renewable resources

Why water is important to us?

We need water to digest our food and get rid of our waste water is needed for digestion. Juice, urine & poop and you can bet that water is the main ingredient in perspiration not also called sweat. Besides being an important part of the fluids in your body water is needed by each cell to work.