

ANUSHRI BEHERA, CLASS - VII, SEC - C
SCHOOL NO - 3029

1. Underline the transitive and intransitive verbs in the following sentences. Write TV for transitive and IV for intransitive verbs.

(a) My sister is an aspiring economist.

IV

(b) The puppy lost its way in the storm.

TV

(c) My mother sent me a letter from the UAE.

TV

(d) The Sabari Express arrived an hour late today.

IV

(e) The children are reading their favourite short stories.

TV

(f) The president of our club seemed unhappy about the meeting today.

IV

(g) Rama submitted her assignment before everyone else in the class.

TV

(h) We discussed several tourist destinations for our upcoming vacation.

TV

2. Underline the verbs in the following sentences and identify them as intransitive (IVP) or transitive (TVP) verbs of incomplete predication.

(a) Studying all night left me exhausted.

IVP

(b) The jury found them guilty of the crime.

TVP

(c) Aslam knocked softly on the classroom door.

IVP

(d) My grandfather resembles Mahatma Gandhi.

TVP

(e) Kamakshi was considered overqualified for the post.

IVP

(f) There were at least five thousand people in the stadium.

IVP

(g) Nandini's plants grew really fast during the rainy season.

IVP

(h) The news of Kaaynat's accident made us terribly anxious.

IVP

3. Underline the subject complements in the given sentences and identify their types.
One has been done for you.

(a) The boy in the blue striped shirt is my brother.

Noun phrase

(b) The pudding tastes quite bland.

Adjective Phrases

(c) The renovation of the house cost a fortune.

Noun phrase

(d) My brother seemed very tired after the long journey.

adjective phrase

(e) She is the player from China.

noun phrase

(f) Rohan's excuse for being late was that he got stuck in traffic.

clause

(g) The situation looks as if we're not going to meet our deadlines.

clause

(h) His story about the aliens landing on his terrace was simply unbelievable.

adverb phrase

4. In the given sentences, circle the objects and underline the object complements.

- (a) I consider my family the best support system.
- (b) Falgun deemed them worthy of her respect.
- (c) Diya found the movie highly thrilling and engaging.
- (d) They put Rhea in charge of the upcoming sports event.
- (e) The queen named her youngest daughter her successor.
- (f) Her sister's manners made Suhani extremely proud.
- (g) Rashmi's friends wished her good luck for the tournament.
- (h) Do you know someone who can repair the coffee machine?

5. The following jumbled words contain a subject or an object complement. Rearrange the words to form sentences and identify the complements.

- (a) results worried she her felt exam about She felt worried about his exam result.
- (b) basket the in the fresh are fruits very The fruits in the basket are very fresh.
- (c) responsible experiences his him citizen a made His experiences made him a responsible citizen.

- (d) Priyanka questions panel the asked many The Panel asked Priyanka many questions.
- (e) girl of the the winner singing sixth from competition grade is the The winner of the singing competition is the girl from sixth grade.
- (f) debate students the club Waheeda elected president the of the The students elected waheeda the president of the debate club.
- (g) teacher best Professor everyone department Sinha the considers in the everyone in the department considers Professor Sinha the best teacher.
- (h) praised embarrassed the felt principal him the in Furkaan when assembly Furkaan felt embarrassed when the principal praised him in the assembly.
6. Complete the following sentences using complements of your own. Write CS for subject complement and CO for object complement.

- (a) A girl in my class resembles _____ CS
- (b) The company gave the employees _____ CO
- (c) The girl next door became _____ CS
- (d) The new moon seemed _____ CS
- (e) My classmates find superhero movies _____ CO
- (f) The band's music sounds _____ CS
- (g) The congressmen elected her _____ CO
- (h) The actor's performance made the audience _____ CO

Recap