- Write a paragraph on Television

Television is a popular medium of enjoyment. It provides entertainment for the whole family. We can enjoy a cinema, a football or cricket match, news and serials and many other programs.

TV is now very popular. It is found in almost every home. The TV programs are sources of pleasure to young and old, sick and handicapped persons. There are many channels. Some are only news channels. Some are only for sports. Some others for films, cartoons or songs. There are also many programs and films for children. Television is an effective medium of education.
