

Date _____

Page _____

PHYSICS LIGHT ENERGY

1. Annular solar eclipse is the eclipse that occurs in every 1 year.

3. An eclipse is the shadow cast by a planet on a planetary object or a planet on planetary object. The two types of eclipses are Solar eclipse and Lunar eclipse.

4. The shadows at noon are shorter than in the morning or evening because the sun is at the top of our head so it is shorter than in morning or evening.