

Hw
30.06.21

Qsn - We always need to ~~container~~ store liquids in containers. Why?

Ans - We always need to store liquids in containers because the molecules present in liquid are loosely packed and can move around. When we poured in to a vessel, it takes the shape of the container as it has a fixed volume.