

HW

Q1. Adaptation of a camel is :

- The skin of the camel is thick and not very hairy. It protects them from the heat of the sun.

2. Adaptation of polar bears mainly live in cold regions. They have fur on their bodies to keep them warm. They have fat under the skin to be used as food in winter.