

hw
28-01-22

Q. Should we waste water? why or why not?

Ans - we should not waste water because water is very important for all the living beings on the earth. without water we can not live rather life is impossible without water. water is essential to preserve the environment and it also gives future generations the opportunity to thrive. So, we should not waste water.