

Birds are winged creatures. An ostrich cannot fly in spite of having wings. Why?

Ans- Ostriches, emus, cassowaries, rheas and kiwis can't fly. Unlike most birds their flat breastbones lack the keel that anchors the strong pectoral muscles required for flight.