

1. Who is the author of the story 'Foot prints without feet'?

Ans. Herbert George Wells

2. The two boys started in surprise at the fresh muddy stampings of a pair of bare feet.

3. He was leaving his stampings in London.

4. What is the meaning of bewilder?
Ans. Perplexed, confused, puzzled

5. Who were the boys following?
Ans. a scientist

6. What was he working on?
Ans. making human bodies invisible

7. Curcifer was rather a lawless person.

8. Scanned the house

9. glass

10. All of them