

74.00
12/7/21

1) How did the invisible man first become visible?

Ans The invisible man Griffin first became visible after he slipped onto a busy London shore for keeping warm and overslept there a while wearing some clothes taken from the shore. The clothes made him

2) Why was he wandering the streets?

Ans Griffin's landlord disliked him and tried to get rid of him. To remove him he set out fire to the landlord's house. He had to remove his clothes to get away without being seen.

3) Mrs Hall found the scientist eccentric. Why does Mrs. Hall find the scientist eccentric?

Mrs Hall found the scientist eccentric because of his strange appearance and when she tried to be friendly with him he rebuffed her by saying that he had come there for solitude and did not wish to be disturbed.

in his words, Hall and her husband went into the Scientist's room on Friday & the door open.

4. What curious episode occurs in the study?

An one day very early in the morning a clergyman and his wife were awakened by the noises in the study which creeping downstairs they hear & then think of money being taken from the clergyman's cloth.

5. What other extraordinary things happen at the end?

At the end Mrs Hall and her husband went into the Scientist's room on Friday & the door open. However he was not seen in the room, but Mrs Hall heard a snuff and she was on the bedpost leapt up and and dashed into her room.