

How

The black araplan

1 A huge storm was brewing up and the author was keen to reach his home to spend his holiday with his family. So, he decided to fly through the storm because he did not want to miss the chance to meet his family at breakfast. Thus he took the risk even when the visibility was almost zero in the storm.

2

As the pilot (author) entered the storm, his plane started jumping and twisting. He could not see anything outside the plane as it was black. When he looked at compass and other instruments they had stopped to function due to the storm. It was a terrible and fearful experience because the fuel tank was almost empty and he couldn't fly more than ten minutes. Then he saw another black araplan by his side and the pilot of the plane signalled him to follow. It was a surprise for the narrator as the other pilot plan was having no light.

 He followed him without any doubt and landed safely on the runway.

3. So at the landing, the narrator was not sorry to walk away from the old Dakota because he had a horrible and scary experience flying that plane.

4. The woman in the control centre looked at the narrator strangely because the narrator asked him about the black aeroplane and she saw none except narrator's in the sky during the storm and in the stadium.

5. It is very difficult to say about the unknown pilot who helped him. But probably it was the narrator who helped himself who helped him to overcome

The fear in the storm as no other place was seen in the reader except the narrator's Dakota place.
