

(Economic)

- (5) The formal sector credit in India includes loans from the cooperative. RBI's SUPERVISORY function and providing loans. Formal sector credit leads to some workable boom explosion of informal sector of credit.
- (6) The basic behind the SHGS is to provide a financial organised, into small self-help groups. They also provide timely responsible interest rate without collateral.
- (7) They might not be willing and can't buy require proper document and collateral as security against loans.
- (8) Borrowers who have not paid them the further
- (9) Development is sustained by a proper credit policy. By giving loans to agriculture on their business without problem more employment and profit.