

HW
12/5

Date _____
Page 19

THE THIEF'S STORY - QUESTION BANK

- 1) Hori Singh did not know how to cook. The first meal which he cooked for Anil was so bad that he threw it to dogs.
- 2) The thief was grateful to Anil because he promised to teach him to write his name. The thief knew that once he learns to write properly.
- 3) He made a profit of one rupee from buying the day's supplies. Anil knew everything about Hori Singh's stealing but didn't seem to mind them. And he also earned by the path of honesty.
- 4) By real work, Hori Singh means stealing. He wants to steal Anil's money because he has not stolen anything from a long time.
- 5) Hori Singh was illiterate or he could not read and write. At railway station the list was attached but as he was illiterate he couldn't find a train to Lucknow.
- 6) In the excitement of theft, Hori Singh forgot about his education. Although the money, which he got after stealing was more at the present time the money and respect which he earned in future because education would be countenanced.

- 7) Hari Singh returned to Anil because he felt guilty about him. He thought that Anil would be sad, not for loss of money but for loss of trust.
- 8) Next morning Anil had already made tea. Hari Singh was having fifty rupee note and Hari felt that he had discovered something. But Anil gave note to Hari and said that he would be paid regularly.
- 9) Anil is a kind, simple and easy-going young man. He is tall and lean stature and has interest in sports like wrestling. He is not very much rich and cannot offer to employ had as a cook. He has the patience and goodness to not only teach had to cook but also to write, read and add numbers.
- 10) Hari steals money from Anil by making him to be frustrated. But, he couldn't run away with that money because the trust of Anil on Hori made Hori to come back and keep the money in the same place. So, he stated 'He was the most trusted person I had ever met.' about Anil.

11) The speaker himself was an experienced thief and fairly successful hand. The speaker made Anil his friend because he thought he could get into the young man's confidence easily. He befriended Anil so, that he could rob him. In the end, Anil is robbed but due to the kindness that he shows to the thief, the thief returns the money that he stole.

12) Hori Singh was a thief. He came to Anil's house with an intention to rob him. But Anil was a peaceful and kind man. Though Hori was a useless employ but Anil has still offered him a job. Hori planned to take the money that is kept under the mattress. When he was executing his plan his heart was not allowing to do that Anil's love and affection towards him, so he came and put the money back. This shown love and sympathy change a thief into a good person.