

1) → This is an example of the secondary or industrial sector being dependent on the Primary

→ This is an example of Primary Sector which is dependent on Secondary sector.

→ This is an example of the Primary sector being dependent on the tertiary sector.

2) a) Primary sector :- It is connected with extraction and

Production of natural resources

- b) Sub Secondary Sector :- It is concerned with the processing of materials which have already been extracted at the primary stage
- c) Tertiary Sector :- It is concerned with providing support services to primary and secondary sector
- 3) Primary Sector :- Flower cultivator, fisherman, Gardener, Potter
- Secondary Sector :- Basket weaver, carpenters in match factory,

Bee-keeper

Tertiary Sector - Tailor, milk vendor

Priest, Courier, money lender,

Call Centre, employee.

- 4) Students are often classified into Primary and Secondary or Junior and Senior. They are classified on the basis of the days in which they study. Yes, I think this is a useful classification because we cannot classify all of them on the basis of age.

ii) Yes, Classification of economic activities into, Secondary and tertiary sector is useful it helps as it in estimating the relative importance in the growth in GDP of the economy. Classifying in such a way helps in calculating how much goods and services are produced and how many people work in each sector.

4) Primary:- Milk vender, farmer, fisher, ~~to~~ a mine worker

Secondary:- local brands owner,
New entrepreneur and a Construction expert

Tertiary:- manager, CEO,
Office ~~to~~ help desk worker.