

List out two differences between Monarchy and Democracy forms of government.

Monarchy	Democracy
1. Monarchy is headed by a monarch who is a succession of the already ruling family.	1. Democracy is a form of government that is headed by a ruler chosen by the people.
2. It is hereditary.	2. It is not hereditary.
3. The decisions in a monarchy are taken by the monarch.	3. In democracy the government takes the majority of the decisions of the people of the nation.
4. In a monarchy all the people are not considered equal.	4. In a democracy all the people are equal under the law.
5. The people under the monarchy face oppression by the monarch.	5. The people under the democracy do not face oppression by the leaders.