

Political Parties

Political Parties : A political party is a group of people who come together to contest elections and hold power in the government.

Partisan : A person who is strongly committed to become a party member is called partisan.

Partisanship : Attractive to some important personalities, speech, service or any kind of influence one can become member of party.

Q) What are the three components of a political party?

- The leaders : who formulate political and programs of the party and choose candidates for contesting elections.
- The Active members : who are involved in different committees of the party and participate directly in their activity.

- The Followers : Who believe in the party's ideology and support the party by casting their votes in favour of the party at the time of the elections.