

Q. Early on winter mornings, we see drops of water on parked cars and plants. Why?

Early on winter mornings we see drops of water on parked cars and plants because when water vapour goes down it

Changes into drops of water and so they stick on the surface of any objects like cars, plants, bottles, mirrors, windows and etc.