

Q(2) Every year our family plan ~~as~~ a trip to an exciting and new destination. This year too we were ready to explore the beautiful country of Bhutan. The first thing I noticed about X Bhutan was its cleanliness. There was an ~~imme~~ immense sense of respect towards nature in all of Bhutan's residents. I ~~later~~ later found out that in Bhutan, the national goal is to make sure that all of its ~~citizens~~ citizens are happy. Hence they measure the country's development through an index named Gross National the air I was breathing was fresh and unpolluted.

(3) Ashmita - Hey Payal! I am extremely sorry to bother you this late at night but did you see my phone anywhere I can't find it.

Payal Hey! Are you sure ^{you} ~~and~~ ^{and} ~~and~~ your phone with you ^{carried} ~~it~~ to the restaurant. Do you think I don't remember seeing you ~~at you~~ use your phone at all during dinner.

Ashmita - I am sure that I carried it to the restaurant. Do you think I should ask Rahul or Isha? Maybe I ~~had~~ left it in ~~my~~ my car.

Payal - Yes you could do that.

This is the problem with phones these days. You can't fit them in pocket and they tend to get misplaced. Oh! You could also ask your other friend who came today if they saw a phone lying somewhere.

Ashmita - I wish I could but unfortunately in the ~~midst~~ midst of celebration, I couldn't even ~~met~~^{meet} all my friends, let ~~alone~~^{alone} speak to them. Did you ~~spe~~ speak to Anna? She had come all the way from London to meet us.

Patyal - I did! She seems very ~~so~~ happy with her job. She even gave us her delicious ~~co~~ cookies.
