

Write a paragraph on television in about 50 words.

Television has become a craze in the world of today. Television can play great part in impart education. Long hours of watching colored T.V. can affect the eyesight as well as the body. Television thus should be treated only as a slave and should not be tolerated to become the master of minds of the young and old alike.