

23/7
H.W

Date _____
Page _____

M.H.

Mrs. Valmonde had no children. Once ~~she~~ ^{Valmonde} ~~was~~ passing by road, she saw under a stone pillar a baby was there. He took the baby to his home. Mrs. & M.H. Valmonde was very happy that they had a child. After 18 years the baby grown up to an adult, she was a girl her name was Desiree. No one knows Desiree's origin. She stood one day under a pillar. From there she was found. A man ~~was~~ was hiding in house, he saw ~~the~~ Desiree and fallen in love with her. The man's name was Arman ~~to~~ Aubigny. Aubigny hadn't her before. He was before stayed in Paris, after death of his mother he was came U.S by his father. Desiree had a baby. Arman Aubigny and Desiree got married. Aubigny's rule was a strict one, too and under it his negroes. Desiree and the baby

Young mother Desirée and her baby were slept on sofa. Desirée wore a mullin and laces, upon a couch. The baby fallen asleep, at her breast. Madame Valmonde bent her pouting figure over Desirée and kissed her. Desirée was very happy to see her baby's fingers and nail.