

Q1) What is an Secondary activity?

→ An Secondary activity is an activity performed by a unit in addition to its principal activity.

Q2) Define industry?

→ The organised production of good or services is called industry.

Q3) Give a broad Classification of Industry?

→ Industry are broadly ~~classified~~ classified in three type:

- on the basis of ownership
- on the basis of raw material used
- on the basis of size

Q4 Differentiate between agno-based industry and Mineral-based industry.

→ Agno-based industry      Mineral-based industry

★ They are dependent in the agriculture to obtained their raw material.      They are dependent upon the minerals to obtained the raw material.

★ They are light industries.      They are heavy industries.

★ They are spread all over the country.      They are located where raw material are easily available.

Q5) Name the factors affecting the location of industries?

→ Factors affecting the location of industries are:-

- Raw material
- Availability of power resource
- Labour
- Capital
- Mean of transport
- Proximity to markets

Q6) Why is the Cotton Textile Industry important in our country?

→ A comparative Sector industry helps in Socio-economic development of the nation. ~~Explanation~~