

A. Let us find the answers from the poem?

1. when is it tough to obey rigid orders?
→ when tempted and sorely swayed
it is tough to obey rigid orders.

2. why should one not boast about their courage to others?
→ for it's easy enough to retain a grin.
But the sort of grit that is good to own is the stuff you need when you're all alone.

3. when is it easy to retain a grin?

4. what is the best way to test if you ~~know~~ ~~you~~ have grit?
→ The best way to test if ~~are~~ you have grit is to just pick out a joy that is you like and quit.

5. what is the 'toughest kind of game?
→ ~~to be~~ ~~spend~~ ~~is~~ ~~the~~ ~~toughest~~ The toughest kind of game is to make our body obey our mind.

B. Let us read between the lines.

1. State the message of the poem in one or two sentences.

→ The speaker is challenging someone to estimate their own strength. You never know how much joy you find in something until you are forced to give it up.

2. which words are repeated throughout the poem? what is the significance of this repetition?

→ The words 'quit' & Quit are repeated throughout the poem. ~~These words~~

Because the poet vividly discuss the important points required to be courageous enough to face the world be passionate about goals and ambitions.

3. There is no main character or person in the poem? who do you think is talking and who is being addressed?

→ There is no main character or person in the poem but the poet is addressing all of us, unless there's something we've tried to quit.