

		Date
		Page No.

Date
Page No.

1. Root grow downwards; towards gravity while shoot usually grow upward & away from earth.
2. Growth movement of the shoot in plants in response to a light stimulus is called phototropism. This happens due to growth of cells towards the shaded side of the shoot.