

U

1Q. 1) Machines were costly, ineffective difficult to repair & require huge capital investment.

2) Labour was available at low wages.

3. In seasonal industries only, seasonal labour required.

4. Common people demand a variety of designs colour & specific type couldn't be fulfilled by machine-made clothes. Intricate designs and colours could be done by human skill only.

5. In Victorian age the aristocrat and other upper class people preferred things made by hands only.

2 Q. The upper class in Victorian Britain preferred things produced by hand why?

A- The hand made product came to symbolise refinement and class. They were better finished individually produced, & carefully designed.