

Question of Ch-2 :-

Q) Describe the features of Stalin's collectivisation programme.

Ans) After the death of Lenin, Stalin headed the party.

7 He raided kulaks (rich peasant) who were thought to hold up stock and brought all land as one.

7 The peasants were forced to work in large collective farms known as kolkhoz. The profits was shared.

7 This came to be known as the collectivisation programme.

7 Those who resisted the programme were severely punished. Many were exiled & deported.

7 In spite of collectivisation, production didn't increase immediately & led to one of the most devastating famine of Soviet history b/w 1930-1933.
