

1) Define Preamble.

A- Preamble is the introductory part of the constitution.

2) What do you mean by directive principles of state policy?

A- A set of ideals which should form the guiding principles of the govt. are given under the section called directive principles of state policy.

3) ~~1st~~ Define Parliament.

A- The body that governs India at the centre, India's union legislature is known as parliament.

4) What is meant by constituencies?

A- Constituency means an area from which a person is elected as a representative in the Parliament.

5) Which is the body set up by the Indian constitution that is responsible for upholding the legality of the laws?

A- It is the Supreme Court of India.

~~5) What is meant by parliamentary democracy?~~

6) ~~5)~~ What is the composition of Rajya Sabha?

A- They are authors, journalists, jurists and scientists.