Dear Diary,

Today I saw a beggar on the way to school. He was wearing a ~~shabby~~ untidy shirt. His clothes were untidy, and he had a shaggy beard. I saw, he was taking out small pieces of bread ~~to~~ from the dust bin to eat. The dogs were barking on him. He was looking very frail and weak. I knew he was very hungry but there was hardly anything left back for him. This incident made me feel sad. The next day, I bought some food for him. I saw happiness on his face.
