Dear Rani,

I hope you, your mom and dad are keeping well. It's been a long time since we last met.

Well, the reason for writing this letter is that I have found a new book "The magic of the lost temple" and I read it. It is a pretty amazing book. When the first time I bought the book I thought it will be the same old story. But after reading 2 pages, I couldn't stop reading it, so you see it's a good book.

Here, I am ending and I will tell you whole story about the book when you will come my home. Regards to your parents and lots of love to you.

Yours lovingly,
Kavishma.
