

Q- Narrate how 'Armand Aubigny behaved after he suspected Desiree's being a black woman?'

A- In ~~the~~ Desiree's baby, Armand sends his wife and baby away as a result of his hatred of Desiree and the baby. Because he comes to believe that they are black, the same race as the slaves he owns, he considers them inferior and rejects them.