

HOME ASSIGNMENT

Write a character sketch of the narrator.

The narrator was given the task to show inform the new girl to play and gossip, make friends with each other. At first she hesitated but later they became good friends. The narrator started writing letters sharing everything. The narrator made a good relation of friendship and she even respected the new girl because she could do all her work with only 1 hand, another one being prosthetic.