

MODALS 2

1) a) Rita must put her clothes out to dry before it starts raining again.

b) You have been sick since yesterday. You ought to consult a doctor.

c) Sameera doesn't have to come to the amusement park if she is ~~se~~ scared of roller coasters.

d) Priya might prefer talking to a close friend about her first day at the new school.

e) In our school, we have to wear white sneakers as a part of our every Wednesday.

f) The exams are going to start in a week. We need to start revising the difficult chapters.

g) Naina ~~Naina~~ was told that she must not play football until the sprain in her leg is completely healed.

2) Write N for necessity, O for obligation, C for compulsion and S for suggestion.

a) You must finish the work before the deadline. S

b) You need to drink a cup of coffee to stay awake.

c) Children as well as adults have to eat leafy leafy vegetables to stay healthy. C

d) You ought to be in touch with your old classmates.

e) The doctor should inquire about the patient's allergies before prescribing a medicine. N

f) The visitors must update their personal details in the visitor's register. S

g) Naveen should reschedule his meetings to meet his cousin in the morning.

3) Fill in the blanks with appropriate modals that express past possibilities. Use the verbs.

a) Gokul shouldn't have joined (join) us for the film if he already knew the climax.

b) She might have asked (ask) for my stapler rather than using it without my permission.

- c) Mr. Khan might have spent (spend) more time with his friends if he knew that they were leaving for France soon.
- d) The teacher might have explained ^(explain) the concept again if you had asked her.
- e) The volunteers stopped ^{should have (stop)} the audience from using their mobile phones.
- f) Shamita should avoid should have avoided eating ice cream when she was sick.

Q. 10