

What does soil contain?

Take some soil from a garden, put it into an empty jar fill the jar with water, cover it with a lid and shake well. Allow the mixture to stand for fifteen minutes.

Now look at the jar carefully.

The stones settle down at the bottom. The grains of sand are seen above the stones. The clay settles down above the sand.

The water above the top layer is not very clear.