became nervous. Her mother wished her good luck as she waved goodbye at the door.

The competition began. When Leela's name was called, she had an attack of stage fright. She became nervous her throat went dry and she seemed to choke.

she could not sing at all.

She left the stage in tears

On her way home, Leela felt really miserable. "How can I tell my mother what happened?" She thought. "She spent so much of her time training me, and I have let her down. She will be angry and upset with me."

What do you think Leela's mother.
